How Our Signature Installment Loans Work

1. You can get the process started by filling out our short online request form, which will send your contact information to your nearest Idaho Title Loans, Inc. store location. You may also contact a store directly by telephone during regular business hours.
2. After submitting our online request form, a representative from your local Idaho Title Loans, Inc. store will call you back to confirm your information, answer your questions and go over the required items you will need. To get a signature installment loan, you will need to bring your state-issued ID, your most recent pay stub, and a checking account statement from an active checking account in your name. The representative will arrange for you to meet at a store to complete the process.
3. At the store, our representative will review the required items you bring and let you know the amount you qualify for. The in-person process of getting a signature installment loan with Idaho Title Loans, Inc. could be completed in as little as 30 minutes. This allows you to get the emergency money you need quickly and conveniently on the same day or the following business day.
